Autumn House Press is pleased to announce the release of the 2016 AHP Nonfiction Contest winner, RUN SCREAM UNBURY SAVE, by Katherine McCord. Katherine McCord hilariously and poignantly captures living, as a writer/person/mother/professor/wife, that is, as anyone, overly aware and stunned by the time we are in, this often fascinating but very difficult age."

List Price: $17.95
ISBN: 978-1-938769-18-4
Number of pages: 160
Genre: Nonfiction
Publication Date: 02/07/17

About the Book: "Too often, it seems to me, we construct our books as if they are mere transcriptions of oral tales, desiring to invoke a waking dream in the reader while disguising the scaffolding of the narrative delivery device (the book itself), suppressing, consciously, the self-conscious consideration of self-consciousness. McCord, in RUN SCREAM UNBURY SAVE, reignites the curious rotary engine of curiosity, the spirographic folding back, that ululation, as a great storyteller confronting the unique high-techery of the book. Believe me, this book cannot, ever, be made into a movie or binge TV series or streamed video. No, it is a book's BOOK. A map more detailed than the thing it represents. It confronts the BOOK and does what only the BOOK can do and does it with goddamn gumption and infinite grace."

—Michael Martone, author of Michael Martone and Memoranda

About the Author: Katherine McCord is the author of two books of poetry, Island and Living Room, and the lyric essay/memoir, My CIA. She teaches writing at Stevenson University and the University of Maryland University College.
