About the Book

"In Andrea Hollander's new collection Blue Mistaken for Sky we are being given something more than poems, we are being given human generosity, connection, and empathy. There are many gifts we get from experiencing art, from reading a great book, but one of the most important gifts the artist can give is that of vulnerability. With this new collection, Hollander is offering such a gift. Now it is up to us to be brave enough to receive it."

—Matthew Dickman
